Easter Sunday, 4 April 2021 The Lord is Risen! He is Risen Indeed! Alleluia!

This year I am pleased to celebrate the commemoration of our Lord's Paschal Mystery with many of you in church. It seems like it was so long ago that we were together for these high holy days, but it was only two years ago. I grieve with you who lost friends and members of your families because of the COVID-19 corona virus. Further, I am grateful to Almighty God for the health of our parishioners, including the ones who have been participating in liturgies throughout the weeks since June to fulfill the Sunday obligation.

This time of the year is the greatest festival of the Catholic Church, and I am privileged to live this one in your midst again, and to celebrate with you in my midst. This is also a good time to thank the people responsible for the art and environment in your church during Lent, Passiontide, Holy Week, and now Eastertide. I also thank all who prepared for the festival of Easter by means of the sacrament of reconciliation. Those who have been returning to church after having received the vaccinations against COVID-19 I also appreciate, because they are as cooperative with our safe distancing and personal protection as people who have been at Mass since last summer. I thank Theresa and the cantors who assisted her and us in the singing these seasons when we have not had access to song books. Thank you to Fred in the upkeep of the grounds, Lynn for the cleaning of the church, Bernadette and Judy for their work in the office preparing us for this great season, and Shannon for her influencing our children and families to come together to celebrate the resurrection of Jesus Christ. I want to again recognize those ushers who have been constant in their work for you at the Masses. Above all, I believe many of us may attribute our healthy experience of the liturgy in the past year to the people who sanitize the church following weekday as well as Sunday liturgies.

In our Risen Lord Jesus and His Joyful Mother,
Rev. Father Rolando Silva, Parish Priest
